

Words of Transition

Part II

1. To Introduce Another Item In A Series:

- First
- Second
- In the second place
- For one thing ... for another
- Next
- Then
- Furthermore
- In addition
- Finally
- Last
- Also
- Similarly
- Besides
- And
- As well as

2. To Introduce An Illustration Or Other Specification:

- In particular
- Specifically
- For instance
- For example
- That is
- Namely

3. To Introduce A Result Or A Cause:

- Consequently
- As a result, hence
- Accordingly
- Thus
- So
- Therefore
- Then
- Because
- Since
- For

4. To Introduce A Restatement:

- That is
- In other words

- In simpler terms
- To put it differently

5. To Introduce A Conclusion Or Summary:

- In conclusion
- Finally
- All in all
- Evidently
- Clearly
- Actually
- To sum up
- Altogether
- Of course

6. To Introduce An Opposing Point:

- But
- However
- Yet
- Nevertheless
- On the contrary
- On the other hand
- In contrast
- Still
- Neither ... nor

7. To Introduce A Concession To An Opposing View:

- Certainly
- Naturally
- Of course
- It is true
- To be sure
- Granted

8. To Resume The Original Line Of Reasoning After A Concession:

- Nonetheless
- All the same
- Even though
- Still
- Nevertheless

Author: Ashur Cherry
York University
Title: Words of Transition Part II
Publisher: Toronto, Ontario
Copyright: 2003
Ref. No.: 002